Notes and News.

TRUSTEES.—The Rev. J. M. Connell, of Lewes, Sussex, has resigned from e General Body of Trustees through failing health. Mr. Connell was pointed a Trustee in 1921 and for twenty years has taken an active interest all the affairs of the Trust, with special concern for the usefulness of the brary. The Trustees have expressed their sympathy with Mr. Connell d their regret that he has been obliged to sever his connection with the ust.

DIVINITY SCHOLARSHIPS.—It was impossible to hold the Divinity Scholar-ips examination last September as the presence of a delayed action bomb Gordon Square a day or two before the examination was due to begin mpelled the evacuation of all the officials from the Library building and the ncellation of the examination itself. The following, however, were ap-inted Dr. Williams Exhibitioners without examination:—

P. R. Ackroyd, of New College, Hampstead.
J. C. D. S. Banfield, of University College, Swansea.
H. M. Davies, of Yorkshire United College, Bradford.
S. I. Enoch, of Westminster College, Cambridge.
D. R. C. Morris, of the Baptist College, Bristol.

The Trustees are arranging to hold the usual Scholarships examination September next, either in Gordon Square or elsewhere. Particulars may obtained on application to the Secretary.

WAR CONDITIONS.—Notwithstanding the conditions of the moment the brary, along with the other activities of the Trust, is still functioning. me damage was done to the Library building in September last, but this s mostly confined to glass and ceilings and, happily, the building still nds and the Reading Room and Lending Department are open as usual. e Postal Department is also functioning and is as normal as the Post ice permits it to be.

It has not been possible to publish the present number of the Bulletin the usual time, but our readers will understand that with a reduced staff l other difficulties some delays are inevitable.

The Trustees have decided to accept responsibility for all loss or damage ough enemy action to books out on loan.
